Through that settlement, the secured claim was paid in full through the plan in the amount of $1,000. That deed of trust was subsequently reconveyed, such that Nationwide Credit/Ocwen Loan Servicing no longer hold a lien on the property and will not be paid from sale of the property nor will those entities be paid from any of Debtor's future plan payments.
2. As set forth above in Section VII.B., the obligation secured by the first deed of trust on the investment property located at 4217 50th Avenue S., Seattle, WA 98118 (held by US Bank as trustee, serviced by Select Portfolio Servicing) will be paid in full from sale of said real estate, outside of the plan, directly by Debtor through escrow at closing. The monies paid to this claimant shall not be subject to a trustee fee.
3. Any proceeds from the sale of the property located at 4217 50th Avenue S., Seattle, WA 98118 remaining after payment of closing costs (such as escrow, title, and related attorney fees; excise tax; and pro-rated property tax) and after payment of the first deed of trust as referenced above, will be paid into the plan.

If Debtor is granted a trial period, the Trustee shall made the required trial period payments from the funds on hand. If/when the trial period is completed and the loan modification is approved by the court and finalized, assuming the loan modification deals with the current arrears on the MTGLQ/Rushmore loan such that it is considered current going forward, this Chapter 13 plan will be complete once the unsecured claims are paid.
5. If Debtor does not obtain approval for a loan modification within the 60 day period, the trustee will make ongoing/arrearage payments to MTGLQ/Rushmore consistent with sections IV.C.1 and IV.C.3 above.
